

Here we are back at your house. Tell me what "democracy: above and beyond" means.

Wait a minute! We've seen democracy in the past and in the present, so what about the future of democracy?!!!

You determine tomorrow—the future of democracy. You are tomorrow's leaders, voters, and elected officials. Now, tell me, what did you learn?

Okay. I learned that Democracy literally means "rule by the people", and because of that fact, each vote counts, each man (or woman) matters, and every voice can be heard. Because the basic foundation to democracy is that "all men are created equal . . .", democracy is above national lines and beyond racial boundaries. "Democracy: Above and Beyond" means that democracy is above and beyond other forms of government. Democracy doesn't mean we don't have problems, but we can meet those problems head-on. Democracy in America started with our founding fathers and has given us national success. But, we are responsible for its success tomorrow. I guess that's it.

Good job. You did listen. I must go now.

But where will you be if I need you again?

As the spirit of democracy, I am alive in each American and every person in the world who yearns for government by the people. You'll be okay, just keep "democracy—above and beyond!"

ORGAN DONATION

HON. GEORGE R. NETHERCUTT, JR.

OF WASHINGTON

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 6, 1997

Mr. NETHERCUTT. Mr. Speaker, between now and the end of June, the Treasury Department will be including information on organ donation with each tax refund check it mails.

I was proud to support the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act last year which directed the Treasury Department to provide this information with tax refund checks.

This information educates Americans about organ donation and makes it easier for people to become organ donors. It has the potential to save thousands of lives—and at minimal cost to the Federal Government. Once someone has learned about organ donation, all he or she needs to do is fill out the card and discuss the decision with his or her family.

Currently, over 50,000 Americans are awaiting organ transplants. Eight people die every day because an organ is not available. Hundreds of thousands of others could also benefit from tissue transplants and many Americans are not aware how they can become organ donors. By learning about the opportunities, individuals can, in the unfortunate event of a fatal accident, have their organs used to save someone's life.

Sometimes, we can save a life while we are still alive. For example, I have made a decision to be a bone marrow donor. When I learned that a friend of my daughter, Meredith, had a potentially fatal bone marrow disease, I had my own bone marrow tested. While there was not a match, I am keeping my bone marrow type on file should another person with a life-threatening illness requiring a transplant have a similar bone marrow type to my own. To save that person's life, all that would be required of me would be to have a small amount of my own bone marrow taken for transplant.

I encourage others to become donors, whether of organs, bone marrow, or even blood. Although easy to make, this is an important decision, and I encourage people considering it to do as I have done and sit down with their families and discuss their decision. This way, a person's family becomes aware of a donor's intentions.

I hope that by including information on organ donation with tax returns, we will remind people of the life-saving possibilities of becoming an organ donor. To become a donor is as simple as filling out a card. But, as simple as that is, the implications are tremendous. You could give someone with a life-threatening illness a new lease on life.

The inclusion of these cards with tax refunds should serve to remind us all of the importance of organ donation. It only takes a small effort to make a great contribution.

IN HONOR OF PATRICK O'KEEFFE, A DISTINGUISHED GENTLEMAN NAMED IRISHMAN OF THE YEAR

HON. ROBERT MENENDEZ

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 6, 1997

Mr. MENENDEZ. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to a distinguished gentleman, Patrick O'Keeffe, who was named Irishman of the Year by the Jersey City St. Patrick's Day Parade Committee. He will be honored at the committee's annual dinner dance on March 7, 1997 to be held at the Quality Inn in Jersey City.

Friday's festivities will celebrate the many contributions Mr. O'Keeffe has made to his family, community and his fellow Irish-Americans. His journey began in County Clare, Ireland where he was born on March 7, 1926. In his beloved native Ireland, Mr. O'Keeffe received his early education in a one-room schoolhouse. Later, his learning would continue under the direction of the Christian Brothers.

In 1957, the American leg of Mr. O'Keeffe's journey began when he immigrated to the United States, where he settled in what is now my district in Jersey City. Subsequently, Mr. O'Keeffe would marry and become the proud father of eight children: Michael, Margaret, Patrick, Brian, Sean, Noreen, Nuala, and Brendan. Mr. O'Keeffe has instilled a love of Irish music, dance, and literature in each of his children. They have come to exemplify Mr. O'Keeffe's motto: "It's nice to be important, but it's more important to be nice."

In addition to his devotion for his family, Mr. O'Keeffe has exhibited an unwavering commitment to fellow community members as well as all Irish-Americans. Although he is an American citizen, Mr. O'Keeffe's heart will always take him back to his roots on the Emerald Isle. For many years, he has been working toward a united Ireland. Toward this goal, Mr. O'Keeffe has joined a number of organizations, including the United Irish Counties Club of Hudson County, the Irish Immigration Reform Movement, and the Irish American Unity Conference.

It is an honor to have such an outstanding and caring individual living in my district. Patrick O'Keeffe is a true community leader. I am certain my colleagues will join me in honoring him.

CARM COZZA COACHES FINAL GAME AT YALE

HON. ROSA L. DeLAURO

OF CONNECTICUT

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 6, 1997

Ms. DeLAURO. Mr. Speaker: On November 16, 1996, coach Carmen Cozza will coach his final home football game at Yale University against the Princeton Tigers. This day will be proclaimed Carm Cozza's Day in recognition of the contributions he has made to Yale University and the game of football. I am very pleased to rise today to honor Carm and to recognize his great coaching accomplishments.

Carm has followed in the footsteps of another great coach and player. Walter Camp is both the father and founder of American football and was the first Yale University football coach. Carm has the impressive distinction of surpassing Walter Camp's win total at Yale in 1976. Carm's record speaks for itself. Under his leadership, the Yale Bulldogs won the Ivy League in 1967–69, 1974, 1976–77, 1979–81, and 1989. Indeed his achievements have brought him some well-deserved recognition. He was named the winner of the 1995 George C. Carens Award by the New England Football Writers Association for his outstanding contributions to New England football. He also won the 1992 Distinguished American Award by the Walter Camp Football Foundation. Carm has distinguished himself by becoming the coach with the most wins in Ivy League history.

However, all of Carm's wins do not say as much about him as the wonderful feelings and memories his former players and colleagues have for him. Everyone who has known or worked with Carm remarks about his integrity, his class, and his respect for and love of the game. What is most indicative of Carm's tenure are the things that he is most proud of. Carm boasts that 99 percent of his players have graduated and he likes to claim that he is the best premed, prelaw coach in the country. He truly cares about his players and is as proud of their academic achievements as he is of their athletic accomplishments. Carm imparts a reverence for the game, a sense of discipline, and the meaning of sportsmanship to all the players he works with. These are his legacies to the Yale University football team.

I am proud to join Carm's family, his wife Jean, his colleagues and his past and present players in saluting a lifetime of great coaching. Carm's vision, leadership, and enormous talent are his parting gifts to Yale and to the game of football. Yale has been truly blessed during his time there with a coach who cares deeply for the game and all those who play it. I wish Carm and enjoyable retirement and the very best during his final games at Yale. He will be greatly missed.

INTRODUCTION OF THE CIVIL RIGHTS PROCEDURES PROTECTION ACT OF 1997

HON. EDWARD J. MARKEY
